ARTIST'S BIOGRAPHY:

Douglas Edwards

Born in Toronto in 1954, Edwards moved to scenic Creemore as a teenager. In later years, this landscape would become his principal subject.

After three years of classical training in figure portraiture at the Ontario College of Art, Edwards spent his fourth and final year of study in Florence, Italy. It was in Florence that he embarked on landscape painting, seeing it as a liberating exploration that took him beyond the confines of figure drawing.

Stylistically, he has evolved from the more conservative and realistic value studies of his earlier works to a present day pre-occupation with the more suggestive compositional form and colour palette of the Impressionistic school. His work, always in oil, projects an unfettered and uncomplicated love of the land.
