

Born in Montreal, Elisa's foundation in art began early; her mother was also an accomplished landscape artist. Her formal fine arts training commenced at the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts School and she later received her degree from Ecole Des Beaux-Arts.

Elisa has devoted herself exclusively to painting "Larger than Life" flowers in oils and has learned to rely on her intuition and passion.

Donations of Elisa's paintings have raised more than $100,000 for various children's charities.

My passion is painting flowers on a grand scale – bringing power, strength but also serenity – a sense of peace that pulls you in. My paintings reveal a meticulous attention to detail where the embodiment of the canvas comes from the energy of the brushwork. The life of the canvas comes in the bold application of color – all the sensuous colors of Italy – evocative and passionate and reflecting the fruits of the earth – a bountiful expression of my Italian heritage. Look at my work with your heart not your eyes. Let it touch your spirit and create a feeling of peacefulness and well-being.
